about.

Connects, a fresh non-profit organization, focuses on media, film, art, music, and the creative economy. Founded by Tashima Jones of Tashima Jones Media, the heart of Connects is to inspire creatives, build authentic business relationships, and highlight the importance of information - sharing.

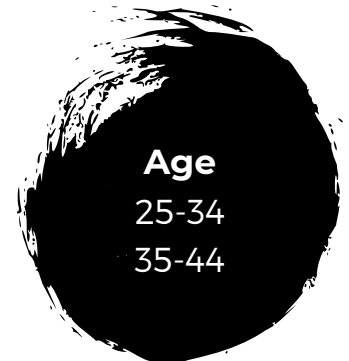

vision.

Through our annual 3-day industry-focused conference, interviews, and quarterly events, we aim to continue to connect multilevel creatives and industry professionals for the purposes of personal and career development.

We are responsible for connections made in a variety of industries and companies including VH1 & Sony Music. Collaborators, Sponsors, and Guests include Sway Calloway (Journalist/Sway's Universe), Nikisha Bailey (Universal Music Group/The Recording Academy) and Ryan Leslie (Artist/Entrepreneur).

Our audience is an intimate group of quality creatives in the arts, entertainment, & entrepreneurship with a focus on professional excellence and an interest in seeking their authentic selves. Space is intentionally limited to maximize the experience of each guest.
